

A new website providing information on the management of coyotes in urban and suburban habitats

Visit <http://www.coyotebytes.org> to:

1. Get useful information for dealing with coyote problems in towns and cities,
2. View pictures and maps of coyotes in your region, and
3. Report any coyote incident or coyote damage:
 - Human safety incidents
 - Attacks on pets or hobby animals
 - Damage to property

Coyote Encounter Registration and Submission

You have no encounters - please begin by adding one

New encounter

Please provide some general information about the encounter.

(Note: * These are required fields that will help us track where and when encounters are happening. While an exact address is not required, we encourage you to identify provide the closest intersection.)

Encounter info:

Encounter date (req): 2007 August 31

Approximate encounter time (req): 7 AM 31

Number of adult coyotes: 0

Number of juvenile coyotes: 0

Number of unknown age coyotes: 0

Additional information: There were two coyotes, but only one showed aggressive toward my dog.

Encounter Type (Note: The "encounter type" selection will determine the questions on the next page)

Human	Pet	Hobby Animal	Disappearance	Damage	Sighting
Incident involved a coyote attacking or being aggressive to a human	Incident involved a coyote attacking or being aggressive to a pet dog or cat	Incident involved a coyote attacking or being aggressive to a hobby animal (e.g., goat, pony, horse, etc.)	Incident involved a coyote-related disappearance of a pet	Incident in which a coyote caused damage to other property	You sighted a coyote.

Which type of encounter are you reporting? (req): pet

Fence info:

A special project funded by the Renewable Resources Extension Act (RREA)
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA